REPORTING

The awarded bidder must maintain and provide to the state up to one year after expiration date of the contract the following information:
Quantities of each vehicle and options purchased for all state agencies.

Options: The State has provided a list of manufacturer specific options (see attached) which have been deemed acceptable by the State.

The term period listed on the contract does not guarantee vehicle availability. This shall be determined by the build out date listed on the contract. Once this date has been established all orders placed prior to this date shall be confirmed for delivery. All orders placed after this date through contract expiration shall be subject to dealer availability of the current model year. If the contract is renewed through new model year, delivery dates typically cannot be confirmed between the months of June through mid August due to manufacturer delays. All QPA releases received after the build out date must include confirmation from the dealer that stock is available or include an expected delivery date for the new model year.
